Specimen Copy, 1½d. post free.

In Great Britain it will be cheaper for our readers to order Gibbons Stamp Weekly from their nearest Newsagent or Stationer, or from the Railway Bookstall. This will save postage, and the paper will be delivered flat, instead of folded, as it would be if posted.

Gibbons Stamp Weekly is produced in order to help and encourage those who are either now forming a collection or are about to start the most fascinating and fashionable hobby of STAMP COLLECTING.

The aim of Gibbons Stamp Weekly will be to help young collectors by publishing series of articles on all matters that may be of use to them.

Articles will in due course appear on such subjects as:—

How to choose a Stamp Album, with descriptions of the leading kinds.

On buying Packets and Sets.

On Exchange Clubs: how to start and how to Conduct them, with a Model Set of Rules.

How to Mount Stamps.

On Measuring Perforations, and how to detect Watermarks.

On what to avoid in Stamps.

Advice as to what Stamps to Purchase, so as to have a good, sound Investment.

On Historical Facts of the past Sixty-five Years that may be learnt from our Stamps.

On the Geographical Interest of Stamp Collecting.

Humorous Incidents connected with Stamps.

Stamps as Works of Art.

How to Collect, and what to Collect.

&c., &c., &c.

A correspondence column will be opened, and we shall endeavour to reply fully to all questions sent to us.

Twice a month we propose to GIVE AWAY to every subscriber to Gibbons Stamp Weekly a genuine postage stamp.

Another feature that we intend to take up is a series of Stamp Competitions—about one a month.

A very valuable lot of large packets and sets of stamps, albums, etc., will be given as prizes in these competitions.

At least once a month we offer a real SPECIAL BARGAIN to readers of "Gibbons Stamp Weekly."

Lots on View the Day prior, and Mornings of Sale.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

FIRST.—The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and resold, provided the auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.

SECOND.—No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 5s., and so on in proportion.

THIRD.—In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller.

FOURTH.—The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 5s. in the pound, or more, in part of payment, or the whole of the purchase-money, if required; in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

FIFTH.—The lots to be taken away and paid for, whether genuine and authentic or not, with all faults and errors of description, at the buyer's expense and risk, within Two days from the sale; GLENDINING & Co., Ltd., not being responsible for the correct description, genuineness, or authenticity of, or any fault or defect in, any lot, and making no warranty whatever.

SIXTH.—To prevent inaccuracy in delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale; and the remainder of the purchase-money must absolutely be paid on the delivery.

SEVENTH.—Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; all lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be re-sold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale.

EIGHTH.—If any owner has placed a reserve on any lot, the auctioneers reserve to themselves the right to publish the fact and price at which it is reserved.

BALACLAVA, 25 OCT. 1854,

THE BUGLE,

used by Trumpeter Wm. Brittain of the 17th Lancers, as orderly trumpeter to Lord Cardigan, on the 25th Oct. 1854, in the celebrated Charge of the Light Brigade.

Wm. Brittain was the son of an old Chelsea Pensioner who had served 37 years in the 17th Lancers. He was mortally wounded in the charge of the Light Brigade at Balaclava and died in Hospital at Scutari. The bugle which he used was brought home from the Crimea and given by the Officer in command of the 17th Lancers to his father, these facts are set forth in numerous documents which leave no doubt as to the authenticity of the bugle and the part it played in the Charge of the Light Brigade.

1. Extract from sworn declaration of William Pearson (17th Lancers), 3, King Square, York. I was in the Charge of the Light Brigade at Balaclava. It was Trumpeter Wm. Brittain who acted as orderly trumpeter to Lord Cardigan, he sounded the charge, the bugle which I have had shown to me is the identical bugle used by the late trumpeter Wm. Brittain to sound the Charge of the Light Brigade, the same field bugle I have handled many a time, as we were both in the band together.
2. Extract from sworn declaration of Thomas Morley, of 58, Exeter Road, Sherwood Rise, Nottingham (late 17th Lancers), I rode in the charge of the Light Brigade, owing to my position in the Brigade I did not hear the charge sounded, but I can say that the charge would be sounded by Trumpeter Wm. Brittain and none other, as he acted as orderly trumpeter to Lord Cardigan on the 25th Oct. 1854.
3. Extract from sworn declaration of J. Mustard, of Twickenham (late 17th Lancers). I took part in the charge of the Light Brigade, Trumpeter Wm. Brittain acted as orderly trumpeter to Lord Cardigan, and it was Trumpeter Wm. Brittain who sounded the charge of the Light Brigade, 25 Oct. 1854. I was present in the hospital at Scutari when he died.
4. Extract from sworn declaration of J. I. Nunnerley, Inkerman Lodge, Ormskirk. I was a Sergeant in the 17th Lancers and took part in the charge of the Light Brigade. Trumpeter Brittain was standing by, and I saw and heard him sound the charge of the Light Brigade, the bugle shown to me is the identical bugle which Trumpeter Brittain used.
5. Extract from sworn declaration of Frederick Brittain. The bugle was presented to my grandfather, who had served 37 years in the 17th Lancers, by the officer commanding 17th Lancers on the return home of that Regiment.
6. Extract from letter of Lt.-Colonel John Brown, 17th Lancers. I hereby certify that Trumpeter Wm. Brittain acted as trumpeter to Lord Cardigan and rode with him in the charge of the Light Brigade, he used a bugle as ordered by Lord Cardigan during the charge.

and several Letters referring to Trumpeter Wm. Brittain and the Bugle, discharge papers and regimental documents.

343 Silver Medal of the First Regiment, Loyal London Volunteers, awarded to James Fielding, with original letter as follows:

SIR,

An unappropriated sum of money having for some time laid in my hands, as senior officer of the Bread Street Ward Armed Association, I have thought that it could not be better employed, than in recording those genuine and unequivocal proofs of real patriotism which you, sir, have displayed in this ever memorable struggle for the existence of our country, and the rational liberties of the civilised world. In conformity with this sentiment I request your acceptance of the enclosed medal, inscribed with your name as a member of the First Regiment of Loyal London Volunteers; and if in future ages the country should again be threatened, your children's children, possessing this proof of your sentiments, will not fail to emulate your example.

I am, Sir,

Bread Street,
July 30, 1805.

Your devoted servant,
KNIGHT SPENCER.

NOTE.—The collector will find in this Catalogue a mass of useful information given by no other Catalogue known to us. We divide and price separately all minor varieties of perforation, watermark, and type, and thus enable the collector to discover the value of rare varieties he may possess, and which are not given in any other catalogue.

In issuing the New Edition of our Priced Catalogue, we wish to draw attention to the chief alterations made therein.

After a trial for some years of small illustrations, we have come to the conclusion that they are not suitable for the leading Stamp Catalogue, chiefly from the fact that when they have been used in printing two or three large editions of this work all the fine lines wear out, with the result that, in many cases, the young collector has had great difficulty in identifying varieties. We therefore decided to go to the great expense of inserting new and exact-sized illustrations throughout our Catalogue. The cost has been close upon £800, and we leave our readers to judge whether the result is not greatly superior to any that has hitherto been attained by similar trade lists. A comparison of this new edition with any other catalogue will, we venture to think, conclusively prove that for general get-up and for beauty and clearness it far excels any previously published.

We are rather sorry to say that, in order to place the large illustrations in double column, it has been necessary to enlarge the Catalogues by about an inch, both in width and length.

In this edition also a more expensive paper is used, which, being thinner than that in former use, is better adapted for bringing out the type and illustrations more clearly.
